

PROGRAMME

In this document you will find the planned activities of the first Italian tour in London and Summerhill school about Children's participation, play and rights - from 13 June to 22 June 2016

The group is composed of 11 adults from different organizations (a professor and two students from Bologna University – Science of Education; three professional educators from Il Millepiedi Coop of Rimini, an ONG worker, a member of the Lucertola Ludens association of Ravenna, a father and his young child; and for a while a Mexican anthropologist of childhood.

DATE	MORNING	EARLY AFTERNOON	LATE AFTERNOON	EVENING
13 June		The first half of the group is arriving in London
14 June	Part of the group has visited the Childhood Museum (Bethnal Green tube station); a childhood anthropologist from Mexico has joined the group	Some of the group walked the Mile End Canal Park looking at playground and sports provisions.	The rest of the group is arrived in London
15 June	Group's Meeting point: 8,30am in White Hart Lane overground station , travelling to Summerhill with e minibus	Visiting the Summerhill school , from 11 to 13,00 and than Fish and Chips	The group has visited the Bealings Primary school, from 14,30 till 19,00	Evening time - Traveling back to London from the Summerhill school
16 June	 Visiting the George Greens School , a large secondary school, children 11-18 in Isle of Dogs,	Visiting the Mudchute City Farm (close to Poplar overground station)	* Meeting with professor Michael Fielding at the Institute of Education, from 15,00 to 17,00
17 June	meeting with the Children's Rights Alliance for England, on their work with children at 11-1pm.	Visiting Spotlight Youth Centre , close to Langdom Park tube station, from 14,30 to 17,00
18 June	A day off to visit London
19 June	Part of the group leave London
20 June	From 9,30 to 11,30 - Visiting Children's House nursery school in Bow Church	From 13,00 - with Alan Sutton visiting Glamis AP, Waterside and Triangle Adventure Playgrounds in Islington and Lamberth city coucils
21 June				The rest of the group is leaving London

* Prof Michael Fielding "St Georges in the East School and Alex Bloom" at the Institute of Education

 where they got level 2 for Rights Respecting Schools and are doing great work with student participation. This school also visited Summerhill several years ago with their school council!

People of the group has been really satisfied of the tour and we are planning a second tour for the next year, in joint adventure with London Play association and other organisations